WINTRY WEATHER POSTPONES VISIT

And Billy Sunday's Attack of Throat Trouble Causes Delay of Several Weeks in Trip to Gettysburg.

A letter received this morning by Rev. W. R. Glen, secretary of the Adams County Ministerial Association, tells that the trip of Billy Sunday to Gettysburg has been postponed. The letter is from Daniel Baker, chairman of the Sunday Evangelistic Campaign and is in reply to one sent by Mr. Glen asking that the evangelist give a brief talk during his stay here. It is as follows:

Baltimore, March 3, 1916.
Rev. W. R. Glen,
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir,

Thank you for yours of the 2nd, but Mr. Sunday has postponed his trip to Gettysburg. For your information, however, when he does come, he will not be able to make a speech, as we are trying to save him all possible on Mondays.

Yours very truly,
Daniel Baker.

Gettysburg clergymen are rather pleased that the trip has been postponed, for it gives them more time in which to try to get an address from Mr. Sunday, and they will not relinquish their efforts even in view of the discouraging statements of Mr. Baker who was to have conducted the party here. It is evident that the trip will not likely be made for several weeks. This information is conveyed in the following from this morning's Baltimore Sun:

"On account of the possible inclemency of the weather at this time of year and its extreme variability, the automobile trip of Billy Sunday and his party to Westminster, Md. and to Gettysburg as guests of Daniel Baker has been postponed from Monday to another Monday some weeks later in the campaign.

"Chief of the considerations was the possible effect of such a trip on Mr. Sunday's severely overtaxed voice and the laryngitis from which he is now suffering. Dr. Howard A. Kelly, and consulting physicians wish to get his health back to normal before taking any unnecessary chances.

"Students at Western Maryland College, at Westminster, were a little disappointed at the postponement, but they were promised that early in April they would have the chance of hearing Mr. Sunday."

INDICT LOCAL HOTEL OWNERS

Fuhrman and Schmidt Company among the Firms Concerned in Widespread Action Taken by Grand Jury at Pittsburgh.

The Fuhrman and Schmidt Brewing Company, Inc., owner of the Hotel Gettysburg and the Gettysburg Bottling Works is named among the one hundred brewing companies in Pennsylvania against which indictments were unexpectedly returned on Friday to Judge W. H. S. Thomson, in the United States district court, at Pittsburgh, by the federal grand jury investigating brewery contributions to political campaigns.

This is the result of the government inquiry begun at Pittsburgh a month ago by United States Attorney E. Lowry Humes.

The indictments, returned for alleged violations of two sections of the federal penal code charge conspiracy by the brewing companies in the unlawful expenditure of money in federal elections.

About $1,500,000 in fines, it is estimated, can be collected if convictions are obtained. No individuals are mentioned in the indictments.

The indictments came up in four presentations attacking the different brewing companies separately, as they were members either of the United States or the Pennsylvania Brewers' Association, the two which the grand jury has been probing.

An indictment was returned against the United States Brewers' Association, but not the Pennsylvania Brewers' Association, because the first is a corporation and the other is not.

Fifty eight brewing companies, members of the Pennsylvania Brewers' Association, and forty two brewing companies, members of the United States Brewers' Association, with the brewery association itself, are indicted.

WANT $100,000 FOR THIS ROAD

Would Make Notable Change to Highway between Taneytown and Emmitsburg. Urging Measure Earnestly.

Leading business men and property owners made a simultaneous demand this week for the improvement of nine miles of State road from Taneytown to Emmitsburg, when a delegation went to Annapolis to participate in a committee meeting.

The construction of this highway will probably mean the expenditure of nearly $100,000, yet it will make an improved road connection between Emmitsburg and Baltimore and intervening cities.

Not only are property owners of the vicinity of Emmitsburg back of this highway improvement movement but many of the leading business men of Baltimore. The route from Baltimore to the summer resorts in the vicinity of Emmitsburg is much shorter than via Frederick. The distance from Emmitsburg by the new route is about 55 miles, while through Frederick it is about 70 miles.

Telling of the efforts for the improved highway the Carroll Record (Taneytown) says:

"A delegation of those locally interested in the Taneytown-Emmitsburg State road, visited Annapolis, on Wednesday, where they met a delegation from Emmitsburg. As we understand the situation, a separate bill is already before the House for a road from Taneytown to the Pennsylvania line north of Harney, where connection would be made with a Pennsylvania State road to Gettysburg."

The par value of the shares is ten dollars. Under the terms of incorporation business may be begun as soon as $5,000 of the capital stock shall have been subscribed.

SEE GETTYSBURG IN MOVIE FILM

New York to San Francisco Feature Booked here for Early Next Month and Local Scenes will be Shown.

The mammoth Lincoln Highway film, in the taking of which Gettysburg played its share last summer, will be shown here on April 6. It requires two and a half hours to exhibit the entire 7000 feet and three shows will be given.

The showing here of this feature film is but one step in the long trip the pictures are taking, which includes every town on the Lincoln Highway and practically every large city in the United States. Every manner of historical, industrial, civic and commercial celebration has been pictured along the 3,400 miles of Lincoln Highway between the East River and San Francisco Bay, and all are to be seen in the pictures.

Flashes along the roadside abound in human interest; homesteaders seeking new fields, plodding along in the prairie schooner of earlier days; the man who is walking from New York to San Francisco; the president of the Lincoln Highway Association caught cooking flapjacks in the Nevada desert; the armored military cars driving the route to the coast on a test for the government.

In Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which is the home of Quaker Oats, a shower of oats was the feature. At Ames, Iowa, the state college turned out its 490 cadets for the pictures. Omaha, Nebraska, was specially illuminated at night for the Lincoln Highway camera man. Grand Island, Nebraska, which is the second largest horse market in the world, had 2,000 horses before the camera. Rough-riding of the most spectacular kind was scheduled in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where the great frontier celebration was held. At Laramie the cattle industry was depicted. Rawlins, Wyoming, indicated its chief industry by an enormous pyramid of wool; the famous trout streams of the vicinity were also shown, together with a record catch of finny beauties.

A carload of high explosive powder, hauled in four wagons and drawn by 22 horses, some of them over the chain in making the turn, rounded a corner in the streets of Fallon, Nevada, recently, displaying to interested spectators a glimpse of the West and her transportation problems as they exist to-day in teaming freight to the Nevada mines. Hard following came a stage coach of the style of fifty years ago, its six horses on the gallop, careening along with all the best of its best days now gone, but vivid in the memory of the West of yesterday. Such a scene on the streets of a real Western town was "eaten up" by the motion picture operator of the Lincoln Highway Association and is one of the many of equal interest.

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL

First Grand Opera to be Produced in Gettysburg.

One of the very few operatic presentations that attract and delight children is the Abner Opera Company's big spectacular production of "The Bohemian Girl" which comes to Walter's Theatre on Thursday, March 9. Balfie's masterpiece in its present amplified form contains much that interests both old and young. Realism is now attained in the several great scenes by the employment of pigs, chickens, monkeys, geese and dogs, the introduction of which does not mar in the least the beauties of Balfie's beautiful music. A cast having as its important members, Edith Allan, Henry Taylor, Mildred Rogers, George Duncan, Francis Tyler and Ralph Nichols insures an artistic rendition of the opera—advertisement

FINAL AWARD FOR HANOVER SEWERS

Almost Ninety Thousand the Amount Allowed. Case in Common Pleas Court will now be Dropped.

The arbitrators selected to ascertain the value of the Hanover Sewer company system met in Philadelphia this week to hear exceptions to their preliminary award. T. F. Chrostwaite Esq., and John L. Rouse Esq., appeared for the borough; William Findly Brown Esq., Richard E. Cochran Esq., and W. B. Smith, president of the company, appeared for the company.

The company excepted to the preliminary award and asked for an increase, particularly on the ground that the arbitrators had written off too large an amount for depreciation. After hearing both sides the arbitrators concluded to let the award stand and therefore made their final award for $85,400, as the value of the system, to which is added by agreement between the borough and the company the sum of $4,587, the actual cost of certain extensions made since the time of the trial of the case, thus making the total, $89,987.85.

This award is binding upon both parties and the report has been filed in the prothonotary's office, the extension of agreement to arbitrate being limited to March 1.

After certain preliminaries are arranged a judgment will be entered for this amount and the case pending in the common pleas will be dropped.

UPHOLD WILSON ON ARMED SHIPS

Senate Tables Resolution by Vote of 68 to 13.

TWO DEMOCRATS VOTED NO

Attitude of White House in Forcing Action is Bitterly Assailed—Gore Voted With Administration.

Washington, March 4.—By a vote of 68 to 14, a greater majority than they had expected, administration forces in the senate tabled the resolution of Senator Gore, Democrat, of Oklahoma, to warn Americans off armed merchant ships of European belligerents.

By so doing the senate put itself on record as upholding President Wilson in his controversy with Germany over submarine attacks, at the same time quelling an agitation which the White House had declared, made further negotiations with Berlin impossible.

Later, action was taken in the house paying the way for that body to follow the action of the senate. The house foreign affairs committee voted 17 to 2 to report a resolution by Representative Porter, Republican, of Pennsylvania, providing that the resolution of Representative McElmore, Democrat, of Texas, warning Americans off armed merchantmen, be laid on the table, and declaring that diplomatic negotiations should be conducted by the president without congressional interference.

Before the vote in the senate was taken Senator Gore offered a correction to his resolution to make the measure declare, in the sense of the senate that the death of an American citizen on an armed merchant ship would be just cause for war.

Senator Gore, himself, voted to table his resolution. Senators Chamberlain, Oregon, and O'Gorman, New York, were the only Democrats to vote against the administration. The other twelve administration votes were all Republican. Forty-seven Democrats and twenty-one Republicans voted to table the resolution.

It was said at the White House that the result of the senate was satisfactory to the wishes of President Wilson. It was added that attention would now be concentrated on the situation in the house of representatives.

Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, later re-introduced a resolution to express the sense of the senate that the rules of international law should be revised to meet new conditions of war and that pending negotiations with foreign powers, Americans be requested to refrain from endangering their lives by traveling on armed vessels. This measure he previously had offered as a substitute for the Gore resolution, and it was tabled, together with that measure. The second McCumber resolution will go to the calendar.

Notwithstanding the action taken by the senate, there apparently still is a bitter opposition to the president's stand in that body. Dissatisfaction was freely expressed by senators, several of whom voted to table the Gore resolution, because the measure had been laid before the chamber in such a way as to prevent debate.

Among those who criticized the president was Senator Borah, who declared that in forcing the vote, the White House had "Germanized" the senate. Senator Sherman made a long argument on the right of merchant ships to carry armament, and Senator Kern, of Indiana, the majority leader, said he no diplomatic negotiations had been in progress, he unhesitatingly would have voted for a resolution warning Americans off armed belligerent ships.

3100 LOST ON PROVENCE

French Navy Minister Says Only 900 Were Saved.

Paris, March 4.—Nearly 3100 men lost their lives when the French auxiliary cruiser Provence, formerly the trans-Atlantic line steamship of the same name, was sunk in the Mediterranean, last Saturday, according to an announcement by the ministry of marine.

The ministry made public that there were nearly 4000 men on board the Provence when she went to the bottom. The ministry previously had announced that only 900 men had been rescued.

Cabinet Takes No Action.

Washington, March 4.—The cabinet met, but as the congressional situation was not finally settled by the senate's favorable action, it was not discussed. It was said Secretary of State Lansing had no new foreign questions to bring up.

COAL WAGE PACT MAY COME TODAY

The Negotiations Take Turn For Better.

New York, March 4.—After hope had been abandoned of reaching an agreement on the wage increases asked by the United Mine Workers, in negotiations over a new contract for the soft coal fields of the middle west, the situation took a slightly favorable turn and both operators and miners said there still was a chance of reaching a settlement.

The miners met this morning and it is expected they will present figures relating to dead work and yardage on the mine run basis which may ease up the situation and bring the two sides together. If they do not agree a sine die adjournment will result and each of the four states involved will try to make wage contracts by districts, something which both sides have tried to avoid, it is said.

The miners cut down their demand for a ten per cent increase for dead work and yardage to five per cent and also cut the twenty per cent increase demand for men paid by the day to ten per cent. This was rejected by the operators. The miners voted down a proposition to cut the tonnage increase from three cents to two cents, with a corresponding reduction in the advances asked in the other classes of work.

THINKS RAIDER IS OFF COAST

Commerce Destroyer or German Prize Near Virginia Capes.

New York, March 4.—A report that a German commerce raider or prize was lurking off Cape Henry, Va., awaiting a favorable chance to dash for Newport News or Norfolk, was brought here by Captain Munkewitz of the Bull Island line steamship Grayson, arriving from Porto Rico.

Captain Munkewitz said that early Thursday the second officer reported a mysterious light to the east, moving eastward. Captain Munkewitz altered the course of his vessel when a second light appeared close to the port side, apparently moving westward. Both lights disappeared suddenly.

On January 23, Captain Munkewitz said, when he was in almost the same position, several white lights were seen to the east. These merely flashed into view and vanished. They were succeeded by a green light from a vessel which crossed the bows of the Grayson, exchanging signals with the ship to the east in the Morse code. It was a few days after this that the Appam took refuge in Hampton Roads.

GERMANS CUT FRENCH LINE

Furious Fighting is Resumed at Douaumont.

ARTILLERY FIRE CONTINUOUS

Infantry Attacks Are Being Made With Redoubled Fury in New Teton Offensive.

London, March 4.—The German armies, under Crown Prince Frederick William, have launched another furious drive against the French positions protecting the fortress and city of Verdun.

The Paris statement denies this and says the highest mound on the northern slope of the village is occupied by French troops and all ground has been regained.

Artillery and infantry attacks are being made with redoubled fury in this new offensive.

The Germans have broken into the French lines at the village of Douaumont, four miles northeast of the fortress. The official bulletin admits that the enemy penetrated to the village, where fighting was declared to be continuing with ferocity. The Berlin official statement claims more than this, announcing that German troops had not only cleared the French from Douaumont village, but had advanced their lines west and south of the village and of Fort Douaumont, just to the east, recently captured by the Germans. They took more than 1000 prisoners and several heavy guns, they declare.

Another of the German attacks was on the village of Vaux (a mile and a half south of Douaumont). The crown prince's troops drove at this village (which is about two-thirds of a mile northeast of Fort Vaux), from both the north and the northeast, but Paris declares the attacks were broken up by the French curtain of fire and the efficiency of the French machine guns. The Germans being compelled to retire and leaving many dead on the battle field.

No new attack was launched in the Woivre district, to the east and south east of the fortress, according to Paris, the French curtains of fire making it impossible for the Germans to leave their trenches.

The bombardment of the French positions northwest of Verdun, which has been in progress for several days, was continued upon the region around the towns of Malancourt and Han court, which lie half a mile apart from and a half miles west of the bend in the Meuse.

Severity of the German fire recently upon this westerly sector has suggested the possibility of a contented drive by the Germans against the French left flank around Verdun with the object of looping back the line there as has been done on the other flank.

The German losses are reported to be severe. The Rome wireless agency says that Germans have withdrawn four more army corps (100,000 men) from the east front, to fill the gaps in the army attacking Verdun.

A despatch from Berlin says the official statement relates that German airmen dropped bombs in the vicinity of the main Verdun fort and that to the east of Douaumont, Lieutenant Imelman shot down a British biplane the ninth aeroplane accounted for by him. (Roual is in Flanders).

The French are not losing sight of the situation in the Champagne region where certain activity has been shown and where it is considered likely the Germans may seek to extend the offensive movement in the hope of breaking through.

OKLAHOMA FOR T. R.

Delegation to Republican Convention Favor the Colonel.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 4.—Every day it becomes more apparent that Colonel Roosevelt holds Oklahoma in the hollow of his hand as far as the delegates to the Republican national convention are concerned.

It is not likely that any Republican delegate will be sent from this state with instructions, but up to this time the colonel has the call. They are for "the man who can win," and by asking any one of them it will be found that in their opinion Colonel Roosevelt can win.

Four delegates have been named so far and they are not instructed. They have been given "hints" though and they can take a hint.

SAYS TWO POLICE AND BANKER AIDED BANDIT

Man on Trial in Chicago Accuses the Three.

Chicago, March 4.—Charles Kramer, one of four defendants on trial here for the $15,000 robbery at the Washington Park National bank, on the witness stand named Captain Nicholas Hunt, of the Chicago detective department; Sergeant Tom Sheehan, of the same department, and Harry Kavanaugh, director of the bank, as participants in the alleged conspiracy which the defendants claim led them to rob the bank.

Captain Hunt was to receive a diamond stickpin "for keeping his mouth shut about the robbery," Kramer said. Eddie Mack, confessed bank robber and state's witness, told the four defendants, Sergeant Sheehan was to receive a tenth of the loot, Kramer testified, and Mack left the bank robbers' automobile five minutes after the hold-up with the $15,000 intended for Sheehan.

Kramer pictured Mack as the "brains" of the quartet that robbed the bank and as an intimate of detective Sergeant Sheehan. Shortly before Christmas, Kramer testified, Mack left $25, representing part of the loot of five thefts at a cafe for Sheehan.

GROCEER MUST PAY

Claim Allowed in Case of Accident After Hours.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 4.—Referee E. K. Saylor decided that the widow of Noah Maulfair, an employee of a grocer, who was injured fatally while making a delivery of food after hours, is entitled to compensation under the act of 1915.

The case had attracted considerable notice by the contention of the employer that Maulfair had finished his work at the store and that the delivery was an accommodation.

The referee holds that the man was engaged in furthering his employer's business and allows compensation for funeral expenses and for the legal period of weeks for the widow. The employer was not insured either in the state fund or in any company.

WILL ESTABLISH BUREAUS NEARBY

Cumberland County One of those who Take Advantage of Service which Local Men Advocated some time ago.

A number of nearby counties—Cumberland and Dauphin included—expect in the near future to take up the farm bureau plan urged here by fruit growers and farmers, but never favorably considered by the county commissioners.

The work is under the direction of State College as part of its extension movement and is designed to place in the hands of the farmers the best results obtained at the experiment station and other sources in a great variety of matters connected with the farm and farming. In a word, the farm agent and farm bureau are experts and all the service of the farm agent and farm bureau is to place in the hands of the farmer the best and most modern information on farming.

All their efforts are not concentrated on soil, or breeding or crops, for they may head special movements for better schools, better highways, girls' and boys' clubs, corn and similar contests, stock exhibitions and so on. Upbuilding the soil, proper application of fertilizers, testing of seed, renovation of old orchards, proper use of spraying materials to prevent insects and plant diseases, promotion of the livestock industry through use of pure sires, the increase of breeding herds, organization of exchange bureaus for feeding stock and pure seed, planning balanced rations for farm animals, making surveys or cropping systems and business management of the farm are phases of the farm agent's work which is done naturally.

For the establishment of a farm bureau with an agent, no less than $2,500 is required the first year. Under the plan, this expense is borne by the national government, the state government through its State College, and the county. State and federal funds usually provide the salary of the farm agent, leaving the expense of traveling and office to the county. While the local expense varies according to the county, it is found to range between $300 and $1500. Under a recent law, commissioners may contribute not more than $1500 toward this work.

The word "Dago" was originally given by sailors to Spaniards, Portuguese and Italians, in general. There are several theories as to its derivation. Probably the most widely accepted is that the word is a corruption of the Spanish name Diego, used as an equivalent of the English Jack or James. Others believe it to be purely a corruption or nickname derived from the Spanish word hidalgo which came to be applied to any foreigner from Spain. It is now used chiefly as a nickname for Italian immigrants in this country.

TO ASSERT RIGHTS BUT AVOID WAR

Butler Would Keep Out of Trouble by Minding Own Business.

VOICES SENTIMENT OF MANY

Less Effort Should Be Made to Force Commerce and Trade Abroad During the European Struggle—Cannon Would Let Interstate Commerce Commission Fix Railroad Mail Pay.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, March 4.—[Special.]—"Lots of people have been able to keep out of trouble by minding their own business."

This remark was made by Congressman Butler of Pennsylvania, a man of Quaker descent, a man of peaceful tendencies, who has voted for every large battleship proposition that has been presented to congress because he believes in naval defense. Butler was speaking of the present war situation in Europe and the possibility of the United States becoming involved.

He voiced the sentiment of many people who would rather that this government make less effort to force its commerce and trade abroad and instead urge its citizens not to travel on ships that might involve the nation in war.

His idea is that during such a war as that now raging in Europe it is best to assert our rights, not waive a single one of them, but as far as possible avoid getting entangled in the war.

"Coming Home to Roost."

I suppose that there is more real danger in the future over the aggressions of Japan than of war with any other country—that is, if a war is not forced with one of the European powers during the present struggle. And that reminds me of the frequent reproduction of the splurge and the crowing that was done at the time and since because Commodore Perry more than sixty years ago forced Japan to open up her ports. At the point of naval gun and under the United States flag Japan was compelled to receive foreigners and become a part of the world. Does it ever occur to our people that we could get along very well now if Japan was back in the hermit stage? Would any one want to open that Pandora box if it was tightly closed and we knew the consequences?

Not Experts in Rates.

Former Speaker Cannon thought the matter of fixing railway mail pay should have been left to the interstate commerce commission. "We are not all experts," he said, "and even those who are most expert on this floor do not know what should be the schedules of railway mail pay. Here are 435 members who are not experts. I have listened to the whole consideration of the bill and all the technical questions and what I do not know about it would make a library."

Pinchot in the Debates.

Gifford Pinchot flashes upon the screen frequently during the debates on the water power bill. The senate is opposed to the Pinchot method of conservation and Pinchot is determined that nothing shall get into the law which would utilize the resources of the country in a manner contrary to his views. Pinchot is stronger in the house than in the senate, and he is likely to hold up all legislation. Naturally his prominence in this matter brings him into the debate frequently.

Riders and Jokers.
Congressman Campbell of Kansas was pointing out the evil of riders on appropriation bills and said the interstate chamber of commerce opposed riders.

"What does it know about legislation in this house?" asked Fitzgerald.

"It knows what a joker is and that jokers get in off-riders," replied Campbell.

"What is a joker?" asked Fitzgerald. "I have seen none since the Sixty-first congress."

"You should have your eyes treated," responded Campbell.

Moon Was Very Frank.

Congressman Moon was asked by Congressman Moore why a proposition relating to bonding government employees was left out of legislation put into the postoffice bill by special rule.

"We think it is a splendid provision," replied Moon, "and I would like to have seen it in the bill; but, frankly, I did not want too close a vote on the general proposition."

"I suspected that," said Moore, "and as I look into the smiling faces of the Maryland delegation I am sure it is true."

"I could save twenty-five or thirty votes by leaving that out," went on Moon.

Worth $30,000 a Year.
One of the prominent Republican members of the house was deprecating the activity of Minority Leader Mann, or, rather, his method of dipping into every detail of every subject that comes before the house. He thought that Mann could accomplish more if he would leave detail to some of the other members.

"At the same time," added the congressman, "he is a most valuable member of the house. He is worth $30,000 a year to the government just on account of his attention to details."

Work.
Work touches the days of endless activity, opens the white and stands awestruck before the immensity of what there is to do.—Phillips Brooks

GRAND JURY INDICTS BREWERS

True Bills Returned Against Penna. Associations.

NO INDIVIDUALS ARE HELD

Are Accused of Contributing the So-Called "Slush Fund" for Political Purposes.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 4.—The first indictments in the brewery probe by the grand jury of the United States circuit court were announced when the members of the Pennsylvania Brewers' association and the Pennsylvania members of the United States Brewers' association were indicted for infractions of the federal laws forbidding contributions of money from corporations for political purposes.

Following an agreement between counsel in United States district court, Judge W. H. S. Thomson granted rules postponing until Thursday morning at ten o'clock the hearing in the contempt cases against Edwin A. Schmidt, of Philadelphia, treasurer of the Pennsylvania Brewers' association; John Gardiner, of Philadelphia, president of the Pennsylvania Brewers' association; and Gustav W. Lembeck, of Jersey City, treasurer of the United States Brewers' association, and the habeas corpus hearing in the contempt proceedings in which Hugh F. Fox, of New York, secretary of the United States Brewers' association, is the defendant.

This action was taken after United States District Attorney Albert E. Lowry Holmes had announced that the written answer he had prepared in the case against Messrs. Schmidt, Gardiner and Lembeck had been destroyed in a mistake by the janitor of the federal building in the night, and that he had ascertained that the contents of the "confidential files," which had been seized by government agents in the New York office of the United States Brewers' association, contained some of the papers and correspondence that certain officers of the association had testified had been destroyed. The Fox habeas corpus hearing was postponed until all the cases could be argued on the same day.

Charles P. Ettla, of Philadelphia, secretary of the Pennsylvania association, the only officer not yet presented for contempt and the last of the Philadelphia witnesses here, was given permission to go home. He agreed to respond when summoned by telegraph.

Prosecutor Holmes, after the contempt hearings were postponed, intimated that the time before the calling of the cases next week would be put in by the United States attorney's office in examining these New York records.

5500 PER CENT PROFIT IN DYE

Reading Man Gets $1200 for Can That Cost Him $21.

Reading, Pa., March 4.—Paying $21 for a can of twenty-five pounds of fast black dye and selling it for $1200, a 5500 per cent profit, was the experience of a textile manufacturer here.

He kept it in a safety vault until he sold it. Textile and hat manufacturers here are seriously hampered by lack of dyes and all are willing to pay almost any price for genuine dyes.

Several plants here are manufacturing fast black. The Reading Chemical Manufacturing company, is marketing two tons daily and is preparing to make several colors as well as black having perfected its own formula.

Arrests 22 Single-Handed.

Merchantville, N. J., March 4.—Chief of Police Linderman, single-handed made a raid on a half dozen houses in Merchantville, a small colored settlement near here, and arrested twenty-two persons for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He used a long rope to tie each prisoner to the other and marched all to the office of Justice Craig, admonishing them that the first man who tried to escape would be shot. After a reprimand, Justice Craig allowed all to depart on their promise to reform.

Maryland Murderer to Hang.

Hagerstown, Md., March 4.—John Brown, convicted of robbing and murdering aged Mrs. Susan Dixon, while in bed at her home near Mount Briar, December 23, was sentenced to be hanged by Judge Martin L. Keedy who characterized the murder as one of the most heinous ever committed in Washington county.

To Hang for Woman's Murder.

Loliet, Ill., March 4.—"Chicken Joe" Campbell, the negro convict found guilty of murdering Mrs. Odette M. Allen, wife of the former warden of the state penitentiary here, was sentenced to be hanged on Good Friday April 21.

Boy Killed by Chewing Gum.

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 4.—John, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mulholland, died from chewing gum. The boy swallowed some of the gum, and it lodged in his intestines. For six days he was unconscious.

Happiness.

No man praises happiness as he would justice, but calls it blessed as being something more divine and excellent.—Aristotle.

STRIKERS DEMAND $90,000

Answer Suit of Luzerne Traction Co. By Claim for Wage Loss.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 4.—Denying all charges of the Wilkes-Barre Railway company as to acts of lawlessness, the striking carmen filed an answer to the injunction suit and demanded $90,000 for loss of wages, alleging the company refused to continue its agreement to arbitrate the wage question.

The strikers set forth that they did not violate the agreement concerning arbitration in any manner and say they were prepared to negotiate a contract when the company refused to further confer with the strikers' committee.

The company has demanded damages of $200,000 from the strikers, alleging violation of contract, but the strikers averred that the company has suffered no loss through any act of the men.

BILLY SUNDAY SEES CARDINAL GIBBONS

Evangelist Calls on the Prelate in Baltimore.

Baltimore, March 4.—Cardinal Gibbons received Billy Sunday at the archiepiscopal residence.

The visit of the noted evangelist was purely social. It was arranged by Dr. Howard Kelly, the noted surgeon, who accompanied Sunday to the cardinal's home. Ma Sunday was also in the party.

Sunday and the cardinal chiefly discussed the difficulty of speaking to large audiences.

"I don't see how you manage to make all those people hear," smiled the cardinal after the formal introduction was done. "I remember one time when I had to address a great multitude in the open air. It was at Wilkes-Barre, and the other speaker, as I recall it, was Mr. Theodore Roosevelt. The meeting was in a kind of public square and—oh, it was very difficult making myself heard to all those people."

"How is your throat getting on, Mr. Sunday?" he was asked. "I understand from the newspapers that you have had laryngitis."

"Yes," answered the evangelist, "but Doctor Kelley here—he waved his hand toward the surgeon—"and Mrs. Sunday taking good care of me, it will pass off in a day or so."

"Yes," nodded the cardinal. "He's getting in bulky shape."

"I'm delighted to hear it," the cardinal responded.

"I enjoyed meeting Mr. Sunday very much and wished him Godspeed," said the cardinal later. And Billy Sunday declared: "I'd never met the cardinal and wanted to."

MUST BE ELECTED

Democratic National Committee to be Chosen at Polls.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 4.—Decision that the Democratic national committee from Pennsylvania must be elected at the state-wide primary on May 16 has been made by Deputy Attorney General W. M. Harkess in an opinion given to the Secretary of the Commonwealth Woods.

This decision, which is in answer to a letter from A. Mitchell Palmer, the present committee man, is based on the Democratic national convention resolution of 1912 and the state primary act of 1913. The certificate of election is to be made to the state chairman.

The Republican rules provide for election of the Republican national committee man by the state committee.

THE LAST SALE Of The Spring Season

is scheduled for April 8, a little more than a month from now.

Advertising for it should appear at once—for this reason: If your neighbor, living within several miles, wants to buy a piece of machinery this Spring and he doesn't know what you are going to sell he will go to a sale where he has seen it advertised. He won't take the chance of waiting for your sale. If he does see the article he desires advertised, he in all probability, will wait for your sale. His bid will more than pay for this advertising.

This is but one case, as a rule there are three or four similar instances occurring at each sale—sometimes more. There is no necessity for the man having sale the last of March to advertise continuously until the date of sale, but his advertisement should be prepared and appear at least once without delay.

The secret of a good sale is good advertising. The Times will help you prepare your advertising and advise you honestly what you need. We are not here to take your money but to be of service. In addition to the service our experience enables us to give, we offer the advantage of 500 Cards free if your advertising amounts to $5.00 or over.

If you Sale has not been Advertised.

Bring it in without delay.

POULTRY NOTES.

Produce the infertile egg.
Infertile eggs are produced by hens having no male birds with them.
Removing the male bird has no influence on the number of eggs laid by the hens.
The hen's greatest profit producing period is the first and second years, and unless a hen is an exceptionally good breeder she should be disposed of at the end of her second laying season and before starting to molt.
Few eggs can be expected until the pullets are matured.
If possible mark the pullets that lay in the fall and use them in the breeding pen for the following spring.

Reck composed of Minute Fossils.
Near Reno, Nev., are peculiar beds of diatomaceous earth. This chalk white material consists largely of fossil microscopic animals called diatoms. These remains have collected here in numbers so immense as to form deposits hundreds of feet thick and in places make up almost the entire mass of the rock. It is so light that it will almost float on water.

Facts Versus Fallacies

FACT is a real state of things. FALLACY is an apparently genuine but really illogical statement or argument.

IN no State of this country where Prohibition law has been tried has it proven other than futile effort. Notwithstanding the FACT that Governor Curtis, of Maine, and United States Revenue Commissioners Cabell and Osborn have virtually conceded that Prohibition laws fail to enforce the ban upon alcoholic beverages, there still remain "dry" advocates who continue making FALLACIOUS outcries for impractical Prohibition statutes.

ALABAMA is a Commonwealth that has only recently become burdened with a Prohibition law. Under the caption of "Certain Dry Citizens Give Warm Welcome to Trains from Wet Towns," the Birmingham Age-Herald, published in Alabama, makes report of how Prohibition works in that State, as follows:

dozen bottles of beer every two weeks. Even the most radical Prohibitionist could not reasonably dispute the FACT that residents of Alabama need not go "dry" when they can obtain such quantities of alcoholic beverages to imbibe in a Prohibition State!

HERE'S an example in arithmetic: If in a "dry" State one man's two-week portion is two quarts of whiskey, one gallon of wine and five dozen bottles of beer, prove, by these Prohibition figures, how much is needed for a man in a "wet" State?

THE FALLACY of Prohibition is seldom better shown than through the FACTS furnished by the Prohibitionists!

Pennsylvania State Brewers' Association

"BIRMINGHAM'S money has begun to flow out, and somebody's wet goods have begun to flow in. If you don't believe it, go around to one of the local express company's offices, about half an hour after the arrival of a train from 'wet' territory, and see the line of men waiting to receive their packages. Various estimates put the number of 'packages' received in Birmingham daily at between 300 and 600. Others who have made the liquor traffic a study, say that the average number of packages now received daily is in excess of 500."

UNDER the prevailing law in Alabama each individual is allowed to receive two quarts of whiskey, one gallon of wine, and five

In 16 Button Musquetaire lengths—we are showing White, Black and Tan—at $1.00.

The scarcity of Kid Gloves and the consequent higher prices asked by most stores made Silk Fabric gloves very greatly in demand and we consider ourselves fortunate in having secured this most excellent Silk Glove at no advance in price.

Lisle and other Fabric Gloves—for heavier wear—25 & 50 cts.—in same qualities as before.

IN KID GLOVES, THE P. CEN-TEMERI & CO. LINES.

We are pleased to be able to say that they have taken excellent care of us in the matter of keeping us stocked in sizes and kinds in the same former qualities and—except in one instance—we have made no advance in price. A full and complete stock of colors and sizes for Easter now—but owing to the great demand for this period, and scarcity in Importers' hands, we suggest early purchase for fear of disappointment at the last moment.

Umbrellas Under Values.

Last Fall we bought an unusual quantity of Umbrellas under the advance price "squeeze." We know if we tried to buy the same kinds now we would have to pay more for them. Except for three small factories in the United States all Umbrella frames were made in the War Country—and it is represented to us that these "Small Factories" have been for some time operating on Munitions—and up goes the price of handles and frames. All cloths, especially dyed cloths, are much higher. We are offering this lot at exactly the same prices that we asked for the same grades a year ago. Ladies' & Men's sizes and handles, and because of the great number of our stock prices are even less for some grades than formerly.

Prices are $1.00—$1.25—$1.50 to $3.00.

MEN'S SHIRTS AT 50 CTS.

NEGLIGEE & DRESS

There was never a better Shirt made, that we know of, than our celebrated "Red Top" brand to sell at 50 cts. BEST in quality of materials—Madras, white or colored, Chambrays, Percalines, BEST in the liberalness of cut, BEST in style. The next lot will have to be skimped in quality or size because of the advance in materials. A 60 Dozen stock now. Stiff Cuffs, Soft Cuffs, Laundered Pleats, Plain Fronts—and all the others.
